

October 26, 2025
Red Bank on Mission
Graces and Blessings of Worship

Throughout scripture God's people worship. Worship is so important to God, not only does He command worship, but He also provides instructions for worship. One instruction commands believers to gather together for worship. God dispenses specific blessings and graces when believers worship together.

Additional Verses:

Exodus 20:1-11, 34:17	Psalms 29:2	John 4:23-24
Romans 12:1-2	Philippians 4:12	Hebrews 10:25

Outline:

1. Worship reorients our focus. (Psalm 123:1)

2. Worship rekindles our passion. (Psalm 85:6)

3. Worship reassures our belonging. (Psalm 122:1)

4. Worship reinspires our growth. (Colossians 3:16-17)

5. Worship reaffirms our mission. (Revelation 7:9-12)

Study Questions:

1. How do you define worship? How does your definition align with scripture?

2. Why is corporate worship critical to a believer's life? Why are believers warned not to neglect meeting together?

3. How do you see these blessings and graces exhibited in worship at Red Bank? How can Red Bank grow in them?

4. Which one of the graces encourages you the most? Why? Which one of the graces do you need to grow? How?

5. How can you prepare for corporate worship?

6. How is the Holy Spirit leading you to respond to God today?